

EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN (EMT)

Credit Courses

EMT 100 Emergency Medical Responder (3 Units)

Hours: 90 (36 lecture, 54 lab)

This course provides introductory instruction in emergency medical care for individuals who may be first on scene at medical or traumatic emergencies. Emphasis is placed on patient assessment and the initiation of immediate lifesaving interventions while awaiting the arrival of additional Emergency Medical Services (EMS). Emergency Medical Responders (EMR) function as part of a comprehensive EMS system under medical oversight and provide basic care using minimal equipment. This course provides foundational emergency medical knowledge and skills consistent with the Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) scope of practice and prepares students for further training at the Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) level.
